

CAMPFIRE ASHES

We carry our friendship with us in these ashes from other campfires with other Scouts here and around the world. With greetings from Scouts everywhere, may the joining of the dead fires with the leaping flames symbolize once more the unbroken chain that binds Scouts around the world.

Ashes taken from a campfire are sprinkled into the flames of the next campfire. The next morning when the ashes are cold, they are stirred and each Scout takes some along to mix with their next campfire. If more than one Scout brings ashes to the same campfire, the lists are pooled and with the names and dates of all campfires recorded and passed on. It is a tradition that only those present at the ceremony carry away ashes from that campfire.

These ashes tie Scouts; Boy Scouts, Girl Guides and Girl Scouts, together around the world and symbolize the World of Scouting. These ashes have been used in campfires since their beginning in 1907 and represent a branching of an ever-growing tree of Scout campfires. These ashes now represent 50 countries and all 50 United States of America. The following is a complete list of all the campfires in which these particular ashes have been used.
